

Destiny Step Into Your Purpose

Purpose, we all have it, however, everyone does not realize what they have been gifted with. Every person in the earth is gifted with something. The key is identifying and working that gift. It is important to understand you were not created just to exist, but you were created with purpose! Since a teenager, it has always been a passion of mine to see individuals birthed and launched into their purpose. Stepping into Purpose will take you on an intimate journey of self-discovery. This devotional will cover three steps to finding and identifying your purpose: Evaluate Prepare Activate ...and so much more! God has so much for you! It's time to go after it all! Destiny is calling, will you answer the call?

With over three billion people who profess to be Christians, why is the world so dark? Where has our mighty spirit been buried? And why have so many believers become socially ineffective? The truth is, most of the individuals who have accepted Christ are alive in the flesh and dead in the spirit. In this book, the church will receive ten crucial keys to unlock its former influence, reactivate its authority, and bring positive change to the people around them. If you desire to reawaken spiritually, develop a greater connection with God, discover your true identity, exercise your faith at a deeper level, and walk in your highest potential, Reviving the Dead will lead you in the right direction. The purpose of this book is to assist you in discovering your true identity and awaken you to the reality that you are a "Woman of Destiny." You have been endowed with God-given talents and gifts that make you unique and rare. It is this uniqueness that blesses the world and enriches the lives of those around you. Prepare to tap into your potential and birth the promise that God has placed within you. This book is a journey that will educate and empower you, allowing you to respond and fulfill God's destiny for your life.

This book is a must-have for: College students preparing to enter the world of work. Entry-level employees seeking a promotion. Individuals looking to change careers. Employees preparing for retirement and second careers. Anyone wanting to make a professional and personal change in their life.

This story unfolds with an intense spiraling of events, personal insights, and a revelation that the Most High God expresses His love as the Father through His living Word. The journey begins with the collapsing of the author's world. What follows is the depiction of the restoration process, secret intimacy, an appetite for God, and understanding one's own Promised Land. The concluding message of God's love emerges as the focal point. It pertains to the importance of love and growth as God continues to intervene in the affairs of man.

Did you know YOU have God-given gifts? That you've been designed for fellowship with--and service to--the King of Kings?! Yet perhaps you find yourself bewildered whenever you hear teachings on the "Gifts of the Spirit"? Do you sometimes feel as if those supernatural talents were given to everyone you know, while you, yourself, struggle to identify with any of them? Do you wonder if your work in the Lord's service would be more efficient if you identified with a gift? What God installed in YOU for such a time as this? If so, you're not alone. Joe Ardis Horn was, like many, confused about his role in the Body of Christ for most of his life. From his youngest years, religious people outside his family exposed him to mystifying (and completely false) theologies and church practices, while simultaneously expecting him to live up to an ever-changing list of behavioral standards that differed from one church leader to another. His understanding of--and relationship with--the Lord was born from these perplexing years, and ruthless bullying in school exacerbated his search to find his place in the Kingdom of God. The perpetual hard knocks left him drifting like a leaf in life's windstorm: destination unknown. Yet from the ashes of this turmoil arose the unexpected heroes, the champions, the few people whose seemingly minuscule investments into Joe's life revealed the rock-solid Kingdom call upon him from birth...as well as a sudden, intense, God-given message for every Christ-follower: The Holy-Spirit-given gifts you seek might not be what you think they are. The book you now hold in your hands reveals how to pinpoint and connect to what God gifted you to be in His service. In Everyday Champions, you will: - Learn how God designed you to be an Everyday Champion - Recognize how to identify and unleash your supernatural, God-given gifts - Discover the most overlooked spiritual gifts in the Bible - Ascertain what the true meaning of faithful ministry is - Journey with Joe as he walks you step by step through his experiences in both the authentic and superficial religious institutions - Meet real-life heroes whose small investments in Joe's life brought clarity and purpose - Learn what Paul meant when he wrote about the Uncomely Parts of the body of Christ!

... And the Lie Goes On By: Alex Kouassi ... And the Lie Goes On ... is about Christianity and the Christian God. What makes D. Alex Kouassi's story interesting is that he is not an atheist. He believes in the existence of a supernatural power, a universal God, but unlike Christians, he does not claim to know about the God that he believes in except that He does not have a chosen people, is emotionless, and does not require offerings or worships. He has no plans for anyone but rewards everyone on a merit basis. What makes author D. Alex Kouassi's message relevant is that it is realistic and commensurate with the world we live in—today's world, and not the world of 2000 years ago. This book is unique because it approaches the issue concerning the existence of God differently. It does not reject the existence of God but it makes the separation between God, the universal God, and the man-made god of Christianity. Kouassi hopes to convey that everything that happens during the course of our lives is entirely our choice and not the will of some supernatural being. He hopes the reader can take away that instead of spending hours praying, the application of very simple rules can have tremendous impact.

We all have dry spells in our lives when nothing seems to be working right or when there is emptiness in our lives. You know in your heart that you were born to do more, but you just cannot quite put your finger on what to do. When Adam's eyes were opened for the first time, he saw an alternative route outside of the will of God. Some would say, That day, he took a freedom train driven by the human will, making every designated stop outside of God's presence. Many Christians have gotten on the same train, a chosen freighter that can only take us but so far, like church and back home again. Yet Jesus is standing at the end of the tracks, encouraging us to go a little bit further because our Heavenly Father is waiting for us with outstretched arms. We were redeemed to return back to the posture of Adam before the fall, destined never to fall again, unless we desire to lay prostrate before the Lord.

The Suffering of the Righteous By: Dr. Tanyi Eyongetah While working on his master's degree in linguistics, Dr. Tanyi Eyongetah heard the call of God that his life was meant for something more substantial. It was a challenging time in life: his father had passed away and there was no one in his life to turn to except the Lord. Working with prison ministry, rural evangelism, and Bible translation and literacy was only the beginning of Dr. Eyongetah's path in working with God. While there is evil in this world, it is important to combat it with the love of God. Living a life of prayer, fasting, and studying the Bible can guide any lost individual to the path of the righteous. All those seeking refuge will find it if they know where to look. This may be the start.

There is a reason you are occupied by thoughts of your destiny, or purpose of existence. You have an innate need to seek out the plan God created for you. You were designed with a craving to reach your destiny. I did not know I had been chosen by God to fulfill a purpose in His plan. The Bible is full of promises of protection, provision, and abundance. However, as we step into the life God has called us to lead we feel fear, uncertainty, and a lack of resources. Just about the time we get trucking along, something we depended on gets changed, and we are forced to make adjustments. During which times we experience fear, uncertainty, and even anger, our faith is challenged. When a tree is left to tend to itself and the dilapidated branches droop to the ground and dry up, producing no fruit, only leaves, it is trying its hardest to restore itself. But, all its efforts are in vain, because all its energy is going to sustain the dilapidated branch with leaves. It does not possibly have the resources needed to also produce fruit. It's taking everything it has just to survive. Do you know what that feels like? Are you pouring everything you've got into your life, and still just barely getting by? Knowledge of your identity is crucial in fulfilling your destiny. It will be used to encourage you. As you travel this road to fulfilling your destiny, you will need the proper tools. All of the tools are crucial for traveling the path you were destined to walk. When you step into your destiny, you will be exhilarated, ready to do what you are certain God has called you to do. At this point, you are experiencing the power Paul wrote about in his second letter to Timothy, "For God did not give us a spirit of timidity, but a spirit of power, of love and of self-discipline" (2 Tim 1:7 NIV). As the self-discipline lessons begin to shape you, you will feel the pain and confusion caused by the pruning. Yes! You have been pruned by the gardener (John 15); you are a branch with hardly any leaves or anything left on it; you feel naked, exposed and vulnerable. It is the winter of your transformation. It is in this time that you must allow the Holy Spirit to guide you. Relying on your feelings will not do. Every ounce of logic and analysis will tell you to turn around, pull out, stop, abort mission! But, it is not the truth. Only the Holy Spirit can guide you through this season. "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control" (Galatians 5:22-23 NIV). You will produce much fruit by the power and direction of God.

Every now and then, it is important that we stop and ask ourselves: "What is my purpose?" "Am I living according to my purpose?" "Am I empowering my purpose?" Remember, you were made for greatness, not mediocrity. "We are not human beings having a spiritual experience, but we are spiritual beings having a human experience." As spiritual beings entombed in a human body, we were formed in the image and likeness of the creator - A God of purpose. Jared Sawyer Jr., author of Walking In Victory, reveals how to align your destiny and God's will for your life to empower your purpose. What does it mean to empower your purpose? It means to live consciously and intentionally. It means to become the most magnificent version of yourself there is. This happens through the achievement of success by expanding your natural skills and achieving life transformations that push the boundaries of possibility. Upon the culmination of reading this book, you will have fully visualized your purpose and empowered your life, which will ultimately change your world.

Naturally, as Christians, we are often perplexed and distressed by the many diverse storms, trials, and fires that we encounter on a daily basis, but God is desirous that we comprehend that our trials are preparing and positioning us for our next level of blessings. The lessons that our present storms or fires are teaching now are necessary prerequisites for the new season that is about to come. The church is in the desert today!! The arid conditions existing in the church leave the people parched, thirsty and longing for refreshing. Many church leaders do not know how to get the spiritual water for themselves and therefore they cannot lead God's people into the Promised Land of true fellowship and discipleship. This sad state of the church causes many church buildings to stand empty because people are tired of church leaders committing gross indecencies and leading people astray with messages that "tickle their ears" or boring them to tears with sermons that contain no life-changing truths. In The Wellspring of Life: Why the Church is Dying of Thirst, Dr. Meyer van Rensburg addresses the issue by pointing out many of the mistakes that have been made (from spraying people with “Doom” insecticide in Africa to church leaders refusing to be criticised because they see themselves as “little gods”, as well as the vacuous Sunday services that leave people in the same state that they came to church, instead of inspiring them and changing their lives). The church is dying of thirst in the desert and the condition can only be treated by discovering the living water to quench that thirst. Too many church leaders do not know how to hear the voice of God and therefore cannot lead people to the living water. By following the listing of the well in the Bible, from Genesis to Revelation, this book demonstrates that the church needs the living water the Wellspring of Life provides. Each mention of the well is dealt with separately to show the significance of what is revealed there, to prove how these Scriptures were specifically put in this order to provide a systematic study of the importance of the well to the church and to point out the mistakes people in the church make. For instance, with Hagar, the fact that the well existed in the desert is first explored and then the fact that it had to be revealed for her to see it. Many people live next to the Well, but it has never been revealed to them that it can change their lives. Further revelations follow with each mention of the well: from Abraham, Isaac and Jacob through to David and the prophets. This continues to the New Testament and the Book of Revelation to show how God will provide for us if we can but follow His instructions regarding the Wellspring of Life. The truths discovered are applied as lessons for the church today. Pastors and ministry professionals will find this book illuminating as it covers new ground, yet it is aimed at the church-going public. It can also serve as a handbook in colleges, as it has many references and quotes, yet it is not written in high academic language.
